Global ReSpecialty

In line with the ever increasing sophistication of the aviation market, Aon Benfield's Aviation team has capabilities far beyond those of the traditional intermediary, allowing us to operate as our clients' trusted risk partner with resources to accommodate every part of their business. We provide your firm with the most appropriate solutions, through consultancy services, analytical tools and risk products that sustain and enhance our clients' position in the market.

Our worldwide team comprises the most experienced marketing executives, technical experts, consultants, claims administrators, processors and operational staff.

Combining Leading Technology With Market Experience

Through the ongoing accumulation of industry data, we are continuously developing our proprietary aviation insurance and loss information databases, which enables us to provide the tools and analysis for our clients' reporting, statistical and actuarial requirements.

Our expertise spans advisory, transactional, reinsurer management and actuarial services. Covering all classes of traditional and non-traditional reinsurance and capital markets transactions, our capabilities are far reaching and include:

- Reinsurance structure evaluation
- Risk transfer program optimization
- Risk-return trade-offs
- Portfolio modeling and risk aggregation
- Rate monitoring
- Exposure and experience analyses
- Calculating economic, regulatory and rating agency capital adequacy

We also offer a range of non-traditional services including the full administration of your outwards program, together with an enhanced fiduciary service, providing reconciliation and commutation/exit support.

Leadership in Aviation

As intermediary of choice on many of the largest global aviation programs, we have unrivalled experience in both your peer group and the reinsurance market, which allows us to structure the very best risk transfer solutions in order that your business can optimize its use of capital and manage the cycle.
