

Travelling by air

- The journey by taxi from Fuhlsbüttel Airport takes around 30 minutes, depending on traffic.
- There's also a direct connection between the airport and the city centre via the suburban rail service (S-Bahn): take the S1 line in the direction of Ohlsdorf. Travel time from Hamburg Airport to the Jungfernstieg stop is around 30 minutes.
- From here, it's only a 10-minute walk (see map).
- Alternatively, get off at Jungfernstieg and take the underground (U-Bahn): take the U2 line in the direction of Niendorf, travel one stop and alight at Gänsemarkt. Take the exit which is signposted Laeiszhalle/ Caffamacherreihe. From here, it's only a few metres to the main entrance of our office building. Several bus routes also operate between Jungfernstieg and Gänsemarkt.

Travelling by train / public transport

Mainline stations

- As well as stopping at the main railway station, most intercity trains also stop at Dammtor railway station, from where it is only 10-minute walk to our office.
- From the central railway station ("Hauptbahnhof"), it takes 10 minutes by taxi or by underground (U-Bahn): take the U2 line in the direction of Niendorf and alight at the Gänsemarkt stop.

Additional public transport stops in the vicinity:

- Gänsemarkt bus stop (Metrobus 4 & 5)
- Stephansplatz/Oper bus stop (Metrobus 4 & 5)
- Stephansplatz/Oper U-Bahn stop (line U1)

Travelling by car

- For satnav systems, enter the following:
  - "Hotel SIDE" (diagonally opposite the entrance to our company's underground car park).
  - "Drehbahn" for the Aon underground car park, or "Welckerstrasse" for the Gänsemarkt car park.

Parking options

- We have a limited number of visitor spaces available in our company's underground car park. The car park entrance is situated on the side of our building which faces onto Drehbahn.
- The nearest public car park is Gänsemarkt and is located on Welckerstrasse.
