

Why Risk it?

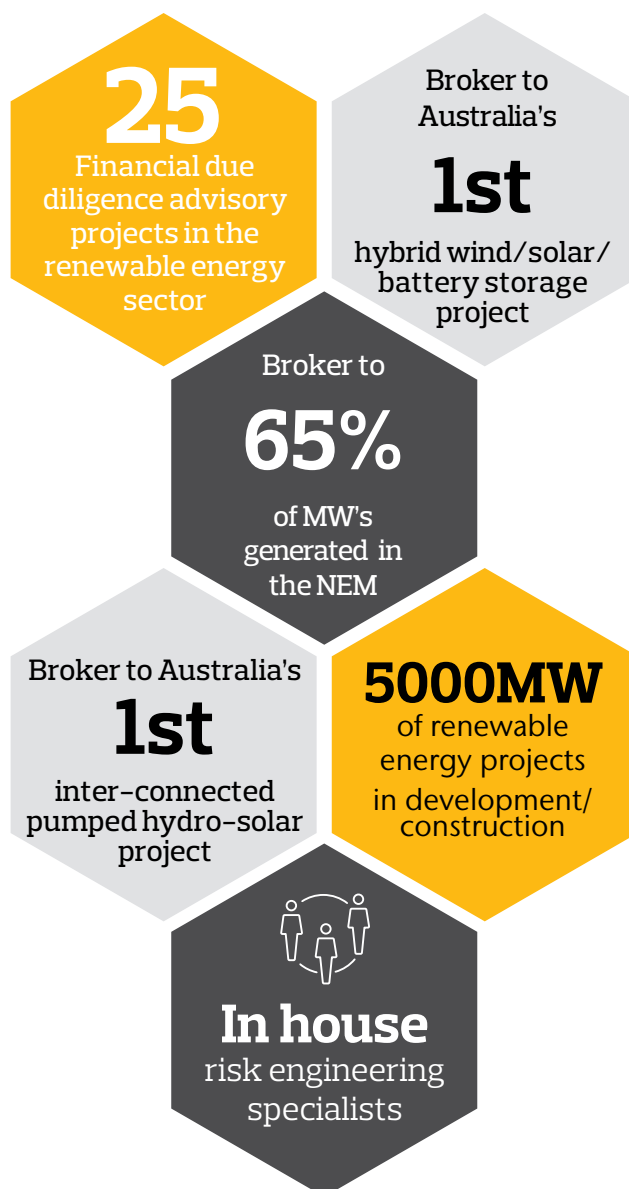

Renewable energy insurance

Your projects secure the future: We secure your projects

We support project owners, investors, developers, manufacturers and contractors around the world throughout the life-cycle of their renewable energy projects. We have the knowledge, experience and commitment to provide clients in the renewable energy sector with a specialist, value driven service. We offer contractual, project and financial risk management analysis and create insurance strategies that enable our clients to protect cash flow and secure scarce capital.

Companies in the renewable energy sector need a risk partner with the knowledge and experience to deliver tailored risk advisory and insurance solutions.

Leading global renewable energy broker

Aon's renewable energy experts are part of Aon's Power team which brings together over 200 power and utility specialists from around the world in one dedicated team. We offer global, industry specific multi-line insurance brokerage, client service, loss control, claims advocacy and management services. We also work closely with colleagues specialising in risk mapping and strategic risk consulting to assess our client's total risk profile.
