

Marine Cargo

Aon's dedicated approach to Marine Risk Management

Global reach and extensive experience

Aon's Marine Cargo teams in Antwerp, Amsterdam and London offer a wide range of cargo related insurance products for all types of goods within the global supply chain. Specialists within the team have a vast range of expertise and knowledge that gives Aon an unrivalled position in the market to service clients' needs. Working closely with Aon colleagues through the global network, the Marine Cargo team is well placed to offer clients access to innovative and cost effective cargo insurance products, both in Belgium and other worldwide markets.

Over $250m worth of cargo premium is placed in Belgium, the Netherlands and United Kingdom alone by the Cargo team. The team also places and manages global programmes for clients that provide worldwide coverage across all territories.

A single team empowered to deliver value to clients

The Cargo team is able to provide transparent and compliant premium allocation models to clients, in order to keep premium and tax payments at required levels.

The team also provides additional risk management advice to clients to assist in minimising potential claims. This advice comes from both the team members' extensive industry experience and from underwriters, with whom strong professional partnerships are used to clients benefits. The Marine Cargo team also provides a web-based certificate issuance.

A broad spectrum of areas covered

The expertise and knowledge of the Marine Cargo team covers a wide range of industry sectors, including:

- Industrial risks (national & international)
- Trade commodities (soft & hard)
- Transportation & logistics
- Art Scope

A wide array of solutions

The Marine Cargo team are able to design and place a number of other products specifically developed to meet the growing needs of Aon's global client base:

- Traditional Marine Cargo Insurance
- Global Programmes
- Stock Throughput Programmes
- Excess of Loss Programmes
- Project Cargo
- Consequential Loss
- Freight Liability Insurance
- Shipper's Interest Insurance
- Supply Chain Management
- Freight Equipment Insurance-trailers, containers, etc
- War on Land and associated perils cover

We follow our clients very closely. Relying on our ability and experience, we also find solutions for specific risks such as contractual default, credit risks, etc.

Our team provides in-depth review services with a broad range of experience and expertise in the area of insurance wordings and clauses, marine and offshore contracts, service agreements and the numerous other undertakings that exist in the marine insurance environment.

Professional claims handling

Also based in Antwerp is the Marine Claims team, who have specialist technical, legal and insurance knowledge to handle claims effectively across all Marine insurance products.
