

Aon Global Retirement Bulletin

April 2019

Aon Global Retirement Bulletin is a very short monthly publication referencing a few changes since the latest Global Retirement Insights Quarterly.

- Design
- Financing
- Operations
- State

Below are the highlighted changes and proposals that have arisen this month:

- In Australia the leading party in the polls of the election (18 May) proposes to raise the 9.5% compulsory superannuation payment in phases up to 12% in 2025.
- In the EU, the Pan-European Personal Pension Product (PEPP) rules were approved which are meant to complement, not infringe on state and occupational pensions.
- In India, the definition of “Excluded Employee” has been narrowed down for EPF purposes.
- In Poland the Prime minister has delivered a briefing on plans to reform the OFE second-pillar pension fund system.
- In Russia the Finance Minister revealed that legislation on the regulatory framework for a voluntary individual account defined contribution plan is nearly completed.
- In the UK GMP equalisation conversion guidance has been published enabling next actions to start. More info can be found in our InSight publication.

- In India, the PFRDA has amended investment guidelines for several NPS schemes. Effective April 1, 2019, the limits on several asset classes are raised by 5% each.
- In the United States, the Trump administration released additional details regarding its fiscal 2020 budget proposal, which includes changes to the PBGC premiums.

- In the EU, IORP disclosure guidance was issued which includes the timing and communications channels during the preretirement and pay-out periods.
- In the EU, the biennial occupational pension stress test has started, this time featuring an evaluation of ESG exposures. Results of the test are due in December.

- In Australia, the Super reform package has passed. It will grant APRA to issue penalties and intervene early when trustees of a superannuation fund are not acting in the interest of members.
- In Egypt, the minimum pension is to rise by about 20% from July 1, 2019.
