Providing Tailored Solutions
Risk Thought Leadership for Governmental, Quasi-governmental, Civil, Social and Educational Organizations

Aon’s Public Sector Practice has developed solutions for many clients. In the United States alone, we have strong, long-term relationships with the following risk profiles:
Risk Advice and Services from Recognized Specialists in the Public Sector

Shrinking budgets and staff, new regulations and increased demand for services are forcing today’s risk executives to do more with less. In addition, climate change, technological advances and population growth continue to stress the existing infrastructure and change both the levels and types of risk present.

To address these challenges, Aon Risk Solutions turns to its Public Sector Practice, a team of professionals serving our governmental, quasi-governmental and other public sector clients.

Nationally, the practice has a network of more than 60 colleagues who serve in account management, brokerage, sales, claims, risk control, actuarial and additional areas. Moreover, our national group is part of a global network of public sector practices that includes Canada, the United Kingdom and Australia. Aon professionals in these countries share information and insight, enabling our clients to remain informed of global trends.

Aon uses creative and forward-thinking techniques to respond to our clients’ needs. Our team provides solutions to address the unique risk challenges of rapidly developing social and economic conditions.

As a service provider, we know that we must be in lockstep with our partners as they plan for the future. We constantly analyze how changes in the structure of states, cities and other organizations may affect risk in 10 years, 20 years and beyond.
